Cyclists will find easy access to the trail in any of the West Central Minnesota communities listed on the map. The 14 foot wide and 55 mile long paved trail travels through one of the most beautiful lake regions in the country. The east end is connected to the Lake Wobegon Trail adding 46 more miles to the adventure route. Go online at www.LakeWobegonTrail.com

Bike Walk Run

Hikers, bikers, or runners will find interesting trips ranging from a few miles to a few days as they follow the Central Lakes Trail through towns and cities, approximately one every seven miles or so. Conveniences such as motels, food services, and bike shops, are plentiful along the way. Many communities provide trail shelters, restrooms, parking areas, and connecting community trails. Trail related events are published on the website www.CentalLakesTrail.com
